

SUCCESSFUL COOPERATION

Maruti Suzuki & Uncease Group

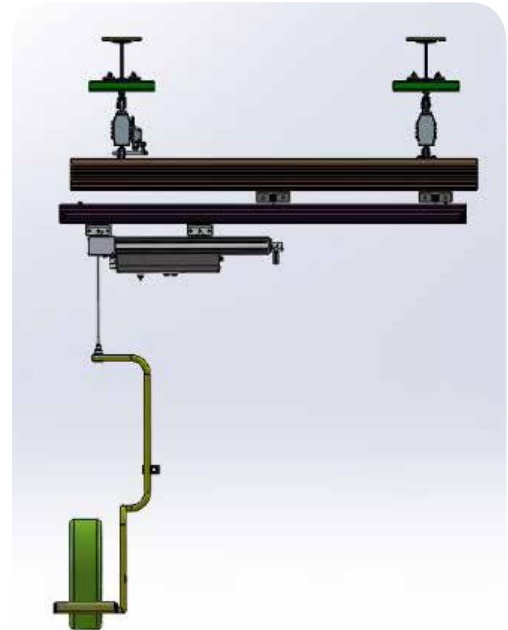

Maruti Suzuki teamed up with Uncease Group and Movomech

After a thorough analysis and evaluation Maruti Suzuki decided to team up with Uncease Group and Movomech for the wheel mounting process.

- The stated assembly time for the wheel mounting process was extremely tight and the ergonomic situation for the operators was in focus at the same time, but we managed together with our Indian partner, Uncease Automation, to find a solution that fulfilled Maruti Suzuki's expectations` says Movomech Area Sales Manager, Mr. Kristian Paulsson.

All stations consists of the well renowned Movomech aluminium rail system Mechrail with customized telescopic functions, the pneumatic wire balancers Mechline and custom made wheel grippers.
